

Working with us

- ✓ We come to you: at home, in aged care or online
- ✓ You set the pace
- ✓ One step at a time
- ✓ Visual, written or audio steps to keep
- ✓ Training for families and care staff
- ✓ Contact us by phone, text or email

Who we help

- Older people living at home
- Residents of aged care homes
- Families and carers
- Aged care providers and staff

Meet the team

Cath Taylor

(she/her)

Founder, Assistive Technologist and Developmental Educator

Jessica Taylor

(she/her)

Orientation and Mobility Specialist and Assistive Technologist

Call us for a chat

☎ 0448 001 807

info@maketechwork4u.com.au

maketechwork4u.com.au

Supporting older Australians

Make Tech Work 4 U

Empowering independence, your way.

- Vision loss and mobility
- Technology made easy
- Communication and daily living

Illawarra and South Coast NSW

Home, aged care and online visits

1

Vision loss and mobility

Orientation and Mobility · COMS
23254 · ROMSA 95

Macular degeneration, Glaucoma
Specialist support when your vision changes.

Around the home

Help to develop strategies to increase your safety and confidence in familiar spaces.

Out and about

Get to the shops, appointments and outings with increasing confidence.

Mobility aids

Training with a long cane, support cane and other aids.

2

Technology made easy

Assistive Technology

Technology that works for you

- Accessible technology options for you to consider
- Larger text, magnification and voice features
- Technology for people who are Deaf or hard of hearing
- Step-by-step training at your pace
- Purchase and supply
- Ongoing support

3

Communication and daily living

Developmental Education · DEAI
3324807

Practical support for everyday life.

- Communication support, including AAC
- Daily living strategies
- Integrating visual schedules, memory support and alternative strategies
- Working with your allied health team.

For aged care providers:

training for your staff and care teams.